REVIVAL SERVICES AT FIRST BAPTIST.

The revival services at First Baptist Church, Rev. W. S. Ellington, B. A., pastor, began last Monday night. There is every indication of great success. Rev. Dr. Waytes, who is assisting the pastor, is a pointed, persuasive and spiritual preacher.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A few nights ago while Mr. Ed Kennedy, the elder son of J. B. Kennedy, the livery stable man on Third avenue, North, was driving home, he had possibly the narrowest escape from being instantly killed that has ever come to a young man within recent years. But being naturally cool and deliberate, and having at all times presence of mind, especially with wild horses, he saved his life. Had it been otherwise, he would have possibly been sleeping beneath the sod. The accident, as told by Mr. Kennedy, was that he was going to his home on the Hyde's Ferry Road, just across the river bridge, about 9:30 p. m., and was driving "Ed," the speedy Kentuckian, who was going at a lively clip when just before reaching the bridge, he saw two lights in front of him which he thought were two men walking with lanterns, hence he made no effort to further detect the object. He drove on until he ran face to face with a massive rock crusher, being drawn by a team driven by two men. It was dark and had been raining and the roads were bad. They came face to face with each other near the bridge where the road is too narrow for one to pass the other, and where a forty-foot bluff is on each side of the road, without any protection to keep pedestrians or vehicles from being thrown off and crushed below. His horse became frightened, halted suddenly, reared up in his fright and attempted to fall backward on the buggy. Mr. Kennedy, with coolness and presence of mind stepped out of the buggy just as the horse and vehicle plunged down forty feet below to the river bottom. Mr. Kennedy concluded at once that the horse was dead and the vehicle smashed, but decided to go and possibly pick up the harness and fragments of buggy. So with the two gentlemen he descended the bluff and saw the horse lying in the mud. Upon their approach the horse jumped up and ran, leaving the harness and buggy. The buggy, without a broken spoke or shaft, was removed and taken to the road again. After working about an hour and a half they succeeded in catching and hitching the horse to the buggy, and Mr. Kennedy drove home, reaching there before 12. Nothing short of a miracle could have saved both man and horse from instant death.

BOWLING GREEN, KY., NOTES.

Mrs. R. Mitchell left last Monday evening for Chicago to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. Leech, who died on March 18th. Mr. Leech was formerly of Paducah, Ky., where he has left a host of friends, who will sympathize with the bereaved family. Mrs. Ida Belma, who has been on the sick list for quite a while, is convalescent. Mrs. Elsey Heter is able to be out again.

Rev. J. B. Winrow, of Independence, Mo., is visiting friends and relatives in this city.

Last Sunday was a great day for church going in Bowling Green. All the churches report large attendance, good services and good collections.

The temperance movement is on a boom in this city. From all appearances at present it seems that saloons must go, and that Bowling Green will be dry in the near future.

Up to this writing only one case of smallpox has been reported in this city.

BAPTIST EDUCATIONAL BOARD.

TO Meet in Nashville.

It has just been learned that the Educational Board of the National Baptist Convention has been called to meet in Nashville, Tenn., on May 17. The purpose of this meeting, as stated by the president, Rev. M. W. Gilbert, of New York City, is to take under advisement the election of a secretary, or to have some expression from the present secretary, Rev. David Abner, Jr., of Texas, as to whether he intends to serve or not. It will be remembered that an article appeared in the columns of the Globe soon after the National Convention, that the National Baptist Theological Seminary would be located in Nashville. It was expected that the Educational Board would begin work at once raising funds for the erection of this great school; but as yet nothing in a substantial way has been done towards the opening of the school, notwithstanding the Home Mission Society, of New York, had agreed to supplement a certain amount to be raised through the Educational Board. That Nashville needs all the schools that can be located here is not denied. It is a drawing force as an educational center from the fact that some of the early schools were located in this city soon after the Emancipation. At the meeting of the Educational Board it is expected that at least thirty of the most prominent ministers of the Baptist denomination will be present, as it is learned the board constitutes a local board from the state of Tennessee, as well as a national board, with a member from each state in the Union. Dr. Gilbert, the chairman of the Educational Board proper, has issued the call for this meeting. Just what action will be taken is not known, but it is known that the new secretary that was elected to take the place of Prof. Jno. R. Wilson, who had headquarters in Nashville at one time, is actively engaged in school work again in Texas. It is said that he is president of a school at Conroe, Tex. The course of the Baptists toward the establishment and erection of this much-needed theological seminary is being watched with no little interest. Should they fail to do any substantial work to this end before the meeting of the next National Convention which is to be held in Washington, D. C., it is thought that a decided attack will be made upon the entire board by the delegates. It is conceded that there is but little time in which to do real work and that this little time is being hopelessly wasted.

J. R. BLAKE, Jackson and Morrison Streets.

MRS. BROUGHTON COMING HOME.

Mrs. Virginia W. Broughton, president of the State W. C. T. U., will be in Nashville two Sundays during March. It is her intention while here to have two large rallies in the interest of the W. C. T. U. work and the coming National Convention. Of course Mrs. Broughton will go to Rome with the party of delegates that will sail in April, but it is her intention before going abroad, to have all her plans laid for this coming convention. A very deserving honor has been conferred upon her in representing the W. C. T. U. abroad. She will bear very becomingly the distinction of being the first Negro woman from Tennessee to have the privilege of such abroad. The state secretary of the W. C. T. U. stated that several mass meetings were to be arranged at such churches as could be secured on Easter Sunday in the interest of this work.

ONLY COLORED GIRL IN CHORUS.

It is learned from authorized sources that at the recent chorus of 149 voices, which was presented at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music, only one colored girl was to be seen in the crowd. Notwithstanding there were possibly two-score worthy young girls from North and South attending this great Conservatory, the manager did not see the advantage or could not feel sure that their voices would be an addition to the chorus. Nashville should feel honored that Miss Lady Emma Louise Phillips was the girl of color in the chorus, and it is said that she made good. Notwithstanding her short time in this Conservatory, she has become at once a favorite.
